

ANTS
“A Network of Top Strategists”
Rules

1. A company/representative must sign & comply with the Ethics program.
2. The company/representative must be current in dues. The dues are $25 semi annual January 1st and July 1st and are in arrears 30 days later. After 30 days any member is in jeopardy of losing their position within the group.
3. The intention of the group is to meet semi monthly on the 1st & 3rd Tuesdays, we generally skip 2 meetings per year. If you must miss a meeting - send another member of your team. No member shall miss more that 2 consecutive meetings and no more than a total of 6. A member may send an email or phone call to be absent due to other conflicts – a total of 2 excused absentees will not count against the total. Special circumstances may be requested due to vacations & sickness and will be approved by the Membership Committee..
4. Only one person from each profession is permitted to join and it must be your full time business.
5. If company/representative fails to comply with the above rules, the membership terminates by default automatically.
6. In the case of a conflict on any matter the Membership Committee has jurisdiction.

These rules were enacted on April 1st, 2008 by the members present

President

Vice President

Secretary

Membership Chairperson